

FALL 2023 NEWSLETTER

Drs. Jamey Jacob and Brian Elbing, along with their team of graduate and undergraduate students, listened in on reentry of a probe from the Benu Asteroid. The team launched high-altitude balloons carrying specialized microphones near the Utah and Nevada border and deployed ground sensors near the landing site.

Read more

Dr. Craig Bradshaw welcomes industry sponsors, faculty and students to the 7th biannual meeting of The Center for Integrated Building Systems (CIBS).

Engineering South is the new home to the School of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering!

OSU's President, Dr. Kayce Shrum, Zeeco CEO, Darton Zink, Former Dean of CEAT, Dr. Paul Tikalsky, CEAT Interim Dean, Dr. John Veenstra, and an MAE student cut the ribbon at the Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for the new Zink Center for Competitive Innovation.

Read more

The CIBS Industry Advisory Board selected eight new projects to begin in January 2024, resulting in a total of 10 CIBS projects led by four mechanical and aerospace engineering faculty members and one chemical engineering faculty member.

Kansas State and the University of Oklahoma joined the Cowboy Racing team for their annual Fall Frenzy.

Engineers and scientists from 11 industry partners joined students and faculty on the Stillwater campus for the CIBS meeting.

CIBS graduate and undergraduate students presented research results and discussed future and ongoing research projects with center members.

Cowboy racing tears up the track in their Fall Frenzy!

MAE has officially moved into their new home! Thank you to our many donors who made the Engineering South renovations possible!

Sharon Voskuhl
Arvind Amin
Kent and Bari Hatheway
Pratt and Whitney
Franklin F. Eckhart
AAON

School of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering

300 Engineering South
Oklahoma State University
Stillwater, Ok 74078-5016

405.744.5900

GIVE
 Your generous donation supports MAE in a BIG way!

