

READ MORE

Fall Senior Design Expo shows off students' innovation

The brilliance and innovation of College of Engineering, Architecture and Technology students was on full display Friday, November 22, during the 2024 fall Senior Design Expo.

READ MORE

OSU hosts successful 11th annual Fall Frenzy Race

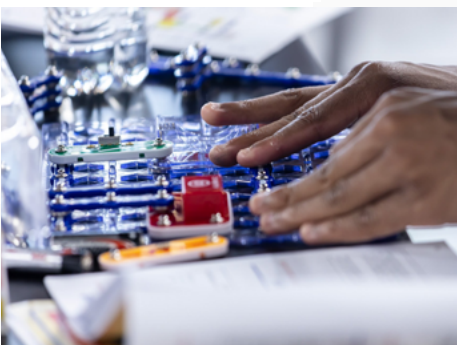

Baja and Bullet Racing — Oklahoma State University's College of Engineering, Architecture and Technology Competition Hub Baja and Formula SAE teams — joined together for the offroad race.

READ MORE

Heragu receives IEOM Global Engineering Education Award

Dr. Sunderesh Heragu - regents professor and John Hendrix chair of OSU School of Industrial Engineering and Management - this week received the IEOM Global Engineering Education Award.

READ MORE

The people of Oklahoma Oil & Natural Gas donate funds to support STEM education access

Oklahoma State University's College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology has received a donation from the Oklahoma Energy Resources Board on behalf of the people of Oklahoma Oil & Natural Gas to further its commitment to STEM education.

READ MORE

OSU recognized for its commitment to military affiliated students, faculty and staff

OSU was ranked No. 17 in the Best Employers for Veterans by Forbes and recognized as a Veteran Employer Champion again by Oklahoma Veterans United.

READ MORE

Riata Center distributes $10,000 in scholarships to Pitch and Poster winners

The Riata Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship awarded $10,000 in scholarships to students presenting the best business ideas at the annual Pitch and Poster competition held in November.

READ MORE

Paris says 'bonjour' to OSU iGEM

Aiming to use synthetic biology to find an alternative healing method for staph infection, a team of CEAT undergrads traveled to Paris to pitch their project as part of the annual International Genetically Engineered Machine competition.

READ MORE

Oklahoma State University postdoctoral fellow receives NASA funded grant

Ali Etehad, a postdoctoral fellow and researcher in petroleum engineering at OSU's School of Chemical Engineering, recently received approximately $30,000 as a NASA EPSCoR Research Initiation Grant.

READ MORE

BAE graduate research assistants receive Presentation Excellence Award

In early September, two students were selected as recipients of the Presentation Excellence Award at the 2024 American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers annual conference.

WATCH HERE

KCNCS Rocket launches at National Security Sites

In June and August of 2024 students from OSU completed four successful rocket launches at the Nevada National Security Sites. The rocket payloads provided by Kansas City National Security Campus collects data on new materials in the payloads.

FOLLOW US
@OSU_CEAT

- Facebook

- X

- Instagram

- Linkedin

- More Stories

- Give Now

- Contact Us

